We are pleased to inform you that your presentation (Abstract #318071, Adaptive Modeling of Neural Spike Count Data with Non-Poisson Variability) has been accepted onto the virtual 2021 Joint Statistical Meetings program. As a speed session participant, you will give both a live and pre-recorded presentation. This email serves as your official invitation letter; please print it as proof of your participation in the JSM 2021 program. Also note that you will not receive any financial support from the 2021 JSM Program Committee to attend this conference, as all registration fees are the responsibility of the participant.

Speed session presentations will be made in the following two parts:

- A live 3–4-minute overview during the scheduled concurrent session
- A pre-recorded 15-minute presentation for on-demand viewing

LIVE SESSION

- Your live presentation is scheduled for Session #220668 on Wednesday, 8/11/2021, beginning at 10:00 AM ET.

- The session will consist of up to 20 talks of four minutes each. Please know you should be prepared with five or fewer slides for this portion of the presentation.
- More information about uploading your presentation will be sent to you closer to the conference start.

PRE-RECORDED SESSION

- For your pre-recorded 15-minute video presentation, there are no restrictions on the recording software. It can be done using tools such as PowerPoint or Google Slides with audio, Zoom, WebEx, Teams, Prezi, etc. Get tips for creating a conference recording.
- Closed captioning is highly recommended for recordings. Depending on the recording software/video platform you use, instructions for how to enable this feature will vary.

REGISTRATION

Registration is now open. This is required for all program participants—and will grant you access to the virtual platform when live—so please be sure to register by June 15 to guarantee your place on the program. Participant registration is nonrefundable.

IMPORTANT DATES

- Abstract Editing – You may make changes to your abstract title, text, keywords, and co-authors until June 30, 2021 (11:59 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time). <http://ww2.amstat.org/meetings/jsm/2021/abstracts/AbstractLoginForm.cfm>
- Draft Manuscript Deadline – You must provide proof of a poster in progress to your session chair by July 1, 2021, to participate in the program. A draft manuscript, extended abstract, presentation slides, handouts, or detailed draft outline are acceptable forms of proof. Chair information will be sent out in the coming weeks along with details about how to present virtually and upload your recording.

GOOD TO KNOW

- If you need to make changes to your contact information or change the order of authors within your abstract, email meetings@amstat.org.
- Speaker/Panelist information is available on the JSM website. Please review this information, as it is vital for the success of your presentation. <https://ww2.amstat.org/meetings/jsm/2021/beontheprogram.cfm#speed>
- The 2021 JSM technical program is available online. <http://ww2.amstat.org/meetings/jsm/2021/onlineprogram/>

Thank you for your participation in the JSM 2021 program. We look forward to seeing you online!
